Dated: 11.08.2014

To

1. The Vice-Chancellor/Registrar, All the Universities
2. The Secretary, Deptt. of Medical Education, All the State Govts. & Union Territories
3. The Registrar, All the State Medical Councils.

Subject:- Recognised qualifications as incorporated in the appended Schedule to the I.M.C. Act,1956 and Schedule in the P.G. Medical Regulations, 2000 – Regarding.

Ref:- Meeting of the President, MCI with the Chairman/Secretary of the State Medical Councils dated 4th May,2014.

Sir/Madam,

This is for information of all concerned that the recognized qualifications as incorporated in the appended Schedule to the I.M.C. Act,1956 and Schedule in the P.G. Medical Education Regulations, 2000 as amended from time to time, conferred by the Indian universities in terms of their authority vested in them under University Grants Commission Act,1956 and Indian Universities Act,1904 as amended from time to time and the nomenclature thereof as brought out in the said Schedules are not open to any alteration/substitution in any manner whatsoever.

The Registrar/Secretary, MCI is the duty bound 'custodian' of the Schedules appended to the IMC Act,1956 and Schedule in the P.G. Medical Education Regulations, 2000 and thereby is the sole authorized notifying authority of the said 'schedules' and 'nomenclature' of the qualifications included thereat. As such, it is neither open nor permissible for any authority to unauthorisedly avail the said specified nomenclature of the qualifications incorporated in the appropriate Schedule, in any manner whatsoever.

Further, the "Degrees" by the prescribed nomenclature conferred by any unauthorized agency would not be construed as recognized qualifications and therefore, shall not be the basis for registration and entry of additional qualifications by the respective State Medical Councils.

(Dr. Reena Nayyar)
Secretary I/c
